

M. Colleen Klimczak, CPO, is a Certified Professional Organizer and owner of Peace of Mind Professional Organizing, LLC. Since 2003, she has helped thousands get a handle on their space and stuff, time and productivity, finding Peace of Mind in their personal and professional lives. Colleen offers in-person and virtual organizing and consultations, organizational coaching and presentations. She publishes a weekly organizing blog and newsletter to bolster organizing skills and motivation and launched her weekly Podcast "Your Organized Life with Colleen Klimczak" in 2022.

Public speaking and organizational presentations are a natural extension of Colleen's experience in client homes and businesses, and she has presented hundreds of presentations to thousands of participants. Colleen's professional and educational background in Business Administration, Psychology and Adult Education provides unique insight into organizing challenges and solutions.

Colleen is pursuing her Organizing Coach certification through Coach Approach for Organizers, plus specific certifications through the Institute for Challenging Disorganization. In addition, her 40+ years as a professional instrumentalist and vocalist translates into confidence and clarity in addressing groups of any size.

Colleen offers in-person and virtual presentations and workshops for local libraries and professional groups. In addition, she has presented as both a speaker and panelist at women's professional and leadership conferences in the Chicago area and is an adjunct professor at Moraine Valley Community College, South Suburban College and Kankakee Community College.

A Certified Professional Organizer since 2008, Colleen is a member of NAPO, the National Association of Productivity and Organizing Professionals, NAPO-Chicago and NAPO-Virtual. She is a member of the Evergreen Park Chamber of Commerce and the Beverly Area Planning Association and Trades Referral Listing.

Terry S.: "I swear just today I sent Jen a thank you email for having you there last Saturday. I told her we now have an office back. It makes you WANT to walk in there! You can quote me, have them call me for a reference, whatever. Feels good to walk into my office again!"

A.T., Schaumburg Public Library: "What a spectacular program! We were thrilled to draw such a big crowd in spite of the weather! It was potentially one of our most diverse crowds and I'm so glad it had such a wide appeal. Your energy was incredible, as were your insights. I know I certainly got a lot out of it and our patrons were quite complimentary as well. They loved the handouts and you."

Participants, Indian Prairie Public Library: "Really learned a lot today. It was nice having a seminar with an expert in the field.... Awesome presenter!"
