Podcast: "Your Organized Life with Colleen Klimczak"

M. Colleen Klimczak, CPO, is an Organizational and Productivity Coach and Certified Professional Organizer and owns Peace of Mind Professional Organizing, LLC.

Since 2003, Colleen has helped thousands get a handle on their space and stuff, time and productivity, finding Peace of Mind in their personal and professional lives. Colleen offers organizational coaching and presentations as well as in-person and virtual organizing and consultations. To support and motivate her community, she publishes a weekly organizing blog and newsletter and launched her weekly Podcast "Your Organized Life with Colleen Klimczak" in 2022.

Public speaking and organizational presentations are a natural extension of Colleen's experience in client businesses, offices and homes, and she has presented hundreds of presentations to thousands of participants. In addition, her 40+ years as a professional instrumentalist and vocalist translate into confidence and clarity in addressing groups of any size.

Colleen offers in-person and virtual professional development, presentations and workshops for organizations, libraries and networking and professional groups. In addition, she has presented as both a speaker and panelist at women's professional and leadership conferences in the Chicago area and is an adjunct professor at Moraine Valley Community College, and a regular visiting instructor at South Suburban College and Kankakee Community College.

Colleen's professional and educational background in Business Administration, Psychology and Adult Education provides unique insight into organizing challenges and solutions. Colleen is a Foundations Graduate of Coach Approach for Organizers and is pursuing her Organizing Coach certification. In addition, she has advanced certifications through the Institute for Challenging Disorganization.

A Certified Professional Organizer since 2008, Colleen is a member of NAPO, the National Association of Productivity and Organizing Professionals, NAPO-Chicago and NAPO-Virtual. She is a member of the Evergreen Park Chamber of Commerce and the Beverly Area Planning Association and Trades Referral Listing.
